Useful functions

■ The multi-jump function

- ① With a search result screen displayed, press the  key to highlight an entry word. Move the cursor to select a word to search.

*In case having more than two letters to search, select the first letter, press the  key again, and move the cursor to select the other characters.

- ② Select the word and press the  key. Then, the list of dictionary jump selections will appear. Move the cursor to select a dictionary, and then press the  key to jump to the selected dictionary.

* If a selected word is found only in one dictionary, the word will be directly shown at the jumped dictionary screen without having it displayed on the list of dictionary jump selections screen.

* If ➞ appears in the screen, select ➞ to jump to the reference entry.

■ The wildcard search function

Entering an asterisk () or a question mark (?) allows to search for spellings or vaguely remembered words. In addition, putting an asterisk () at the beginning of a word or phrase makes it possible to search reversely for entry words that are generated from the word.

Example: Enter “chr * m” to search for a word beginning with “chr” and ending with “m”, such as “chrism” or “chrysanthemum”.

Enter “ * そら ” to search for a word or phrase ending in “ そら ”, such as “ あまつそら ” or “ うわのそら ”.

Enter “b?lieve” to search for “believe” without knowing whether the second letter is “i” or “e”.

(*) indicates unlimited number of letters, and (?) indicates a single letter.

■ The spell-check function

When an English word is entered in the input box of a search screen, press the  key to check the spelling of the word. A list of matched words with the same spelling or similar spellings will be displayed.

■ The history function

With the search screen of a dictionary or a search result screen displayed, press the  key to display the list of words previously searched in the dictionary. At the history list screen, press the key  to delete listed words.

■ The Bookmark function

- ① With a search result screen displayed, press the  key to bookmark a displayed word to the Bookmark list.
- ② With the search screen of a dictionary or a search result screen displayed, press the  key to display a list of bookmarked words in the dictionary. From the list, select a bookmarked word to display, and then press the  key to recall the word.
- ③ With the Bookmark list displayed, press the  key to delete the selected entry from the Bookmark list.

■ The kanji stroke order

- ① If  appears in the search result screen of the Kanjigen (kanji dictionary), press the  key to switch to the stroke order screen and view the stroke order for a main entry character. To return to the search result screen, press the  key. In addition, if the  key is pressed while a search result screen of the Kanjigen or the Super Daijirin is displayed, each character will be enlarged. Move the cursor to select one character at a time to enlarge. Press the  key again to display the text at its original size.

Pronunciation/Recording function

This unit contains model pronunciations of about 14,000 essential words in the English-Japanese dictionary and of about 3,000 sample sentences in the English Conversation Dictionary. You can record your pronunciation and compare it with the model pronunciation.

■ Checking the pronunciation
